

Economics Conference on “An Urgency for Evidence and Transparency in Economic Analysis and Policy,” From Friday, October 13th (1:30 PM) to Saturday October 14th (6:00 PM)

Hosted by Center for Economics and the Environment, Hammond Institute
Plaster School of Business and Entrepreneurship, Lindenwood University

The Conference will be held at the Ameristar Resort, St. Charles, Missouri (near St. Louis)

Organized by AIRLEAP Midwest office of the Association for Integrity and Responsible Leadership in Economics and Associated Professions (AIRLEAP.org)

Click Here to Register \(\$295\)

Registration includes a reception and dinner on Friday, and breakfast and lunch on Saturday! There is also an AIRLEAP social gathering on Saturday evening after the conference (where all conference attendees will be welcome).

Keynote Speakers

“Economics and Ethics: Is the Public Sector Way Ahead?”

Professor Erica Groshen, Cornell University; Former Commissioner of the Bureau of Labor Statistics, and Former Vice President of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York

“Ethics Wars: The Empire Strikes Back!”

Professor George DeMartino, University of Denver; Author of The Economist’s Oath, and Coauthor of the Oxford Handbook of Professional Economic Ethics

Research papers will be presented and discussed in the following sessions:

1. Improving Standards and Beliefs in Economic Practice
2. Instilling Integrity in the Next Generation of Researchers: Project TIER and Beyond
3. Forensic Economics: Candor and Transparency in Legal and Consulting Arenas
4. Replication in Empirical Economics
5. Ethics in Economics Education and Practice
6. Current Methods of Economic Analysis and Policy Development
7. Improving Understanding in Labor Economics, Big Data, and Small and Medium Sized Enterprises

Click Here to See the Conference Program